

Getting Ready to Learn

Top Tips

Play is key to children's learning, development, confidence and wellbeing.

Why not provide a range of materials such as junk items - milk containers, cereal boxes, yoghurt pots and paper for creating; wooden spoons and saucepans for making music; old clothes for dress up. All activities will promote imaginative and unstructured play.

